INSURANCE

This is quite a feature of my business. I represent two strong and liberal companies, whose contracts are free from the usual numerous restrictions that some other companies have, which really have the effect of insuring the company instead of the insured. No trouble to explain the policies and quote rates. ACCIDENT TICKETS—These are adapted to persons who do not desire yearly insurance, but who wish protection on short trips, etc. I issue them without written application, taking effect immediately.

WALLACE IS SCORED.

Taft Says He Changed Position Over
Night "For Mere Lucre."

PRESIDENT APPROVES

Inform Chief Engineer of Isthmian
Canal Commission That Action of Secretary of War Receives His Sanction.

Washington, June 30.—Charging him with changing his position over night "for mere lucre," and being influenced solely "by personal advantage," Secretary Taft in his conference in New York on June 26 with John F. Wallace, chief engineer of the Panama canal, after administering a severe rebuke to him, requested his resignation on the ground that "public interest requires that you tender your resignation at this moment and turn over the records of your office to the chairman of the commission."

This fact is disclosed in an official statement issued from the office of the secretary of war and which reviews the relations of Mr. Wallace with the war department and the commission since the latter body's reorganization last spring, quoting the several expressions of the chief engineer of his satisfaction with the entire arrangement, and then gives practically a verbatim account of the conference between Secretary Taft and Mr. Wallace in New York, which concluded with the submission to Secretary Taft of Mr. Wallace's resignation. The statement issued Thursday concludes with the president's letter to Mr. Wallace, dated Cambridge, Mass., June 28, which reads:

"Your resignation as member and chief engineer of the Isthmian canal commission, tendered in accordance with the request of Secretary Taft, which request under the circumstances has my entire approval, is hereby accepted to take effect immediately. Very truly yours,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

The statement shows that Mr. Wallace made no complaint against any of his assistants. Secretary Taft returned to Washington Thursday and went at once to his house, where he summoned Mr. Shonts, chairman of the Isthmian canal commission, and William Nelson Cromwell, the counsel for the commission. They at once entered upon the preparation of the statement which was not ready for publication until late Thursday night, the secretary meantime talking with the president over the long distance telephone at Oyster Bay. The statement was issued by direction of the president, its main features having been agreed upon when Secretary Taft saw the president at Harvard university early in the week.

TEN CENTS.

Planters Urged to Accept Not Less Than This Amount For Cotton.

Memphis, June 30.—Southern Cotton association executive committee adopted the following:

"That because figures show that mills are now using over 10,000 bales per month and that in view of the fact that there is an amount slightly in excess of one million bales left in the hands of the producers of 1904 and 1905, and that the report of the Southern Cotton association, issued June 22, showed that a prospective crop of 10,285,000 bales is in sight.

"We advise that on the basis cotton is today each and every cotton planter accept not less than 10 cents per pound for cotton they now have on hand or can possibly be produced this year."

Mr. Foster of Louisiana asked that an amendment be made to the resolution stating specifically that not less than 10 cents per pound be taken for cotton on a minimum basis of middling.

A resolution extending the International Federation of Master Cotton Spinners and Manufacturers' association an invitation to co-operate with the Southern Cotton association in a system to build bonded warehouses in this country and Europe for storing cotton, to adopt measures to secure an adequate supply of cotton for the world's needs and to take other steps looking to the elimination of the speculation, was also adopted.

BREWERY BONDS.

Important Deed of Trust and Mortgage
Filed at Shreveport.

Shreveport, June 30.—An important deed of trust and mortgage from the Shreveport brewery to the People's bank of Mobile was filed for record in the office of the district clerk. By the terms of the instrument the Shreveport brewery conveys to the bank mentioned all its property, both real and personal, its plants, machinery, franchises, rents and incomes to secure a $125,000 bond issue in two series of $1000 and $500 each, due thirty years from June 1, 1905.

Conductor Killed.

Albuquerque, N. M., June 30.—A Santa Fe passenger train coming from El Paso was wrecked at San Antonio, south of here, by colliding with freight cars. Conductor Wells of El Paso was killed. Five persons were injured, one seriously.

SITUATION IS SERIOUS

Not Since 1825 Has There Existed
Such a Crisis.

TUMULT IS TERRIBLE

Condition of Affairs at Odessa Is of So Grave a Character as to Dangerously Menace the Romanoff Dynasty.

St. Petersburg, June 30.—Not since St. Petersburg, July 1.—Not since the unsuccessful insurrection of December, 1825, when a portion of the guard regiments joined in an attempt to set up a republic in Russia, has the situation of autocracy and the Romanoff dynasty been so serious. Nevertheless, the crisis may be passed in a few days. Either the revolt will by that time be stamped out or the flames will have spread possibly beyond the hope of control. At the admiralty it was said Rear Admiral Kruger's squadron was expected to arrive at Odessa during Friday. No explanation was given for the delay of the squadron's sailing from Sevastopol nor of the nature of Kruger's orders. It was admitted although great reticence was manifested that at 9 o'clock Thursday night the Kniaz Potemkine was firing upon the city. The admiralty thinks the mutinous crew probably drunk. Officials consider it possible that crews supporting the strikers and revolutionists ashore are against the troops. Throughout the day soldiers and police had evidently refrained from attempting to interfere with the strikers, under threats of mutineers of the battleship to use her guns against them. Although it is possible this quiescence is due to fear, the authorities think they are unreliable, and a regiment of dragoons and brigade of artillery have been sent to Odessa from Kherson. These troops should have arrived at Odessa Friday morning. With these reinforcements and the city under martial law it is believed the military governor will be strong enough to attempt to suppress the rioters by force. The plan is believed to be for the soldiers to crush the disorders in the city while Kruger's squadron holds the entrance to the harbor. It is apparently questionable whether Kruger will engage the Kniaz Potemkine if she refuses to surrender, as firing upon the vessel might be too dangerous a task for the sailors on board his ships. Besides it would involve necessarily the destruction of the battleship, costing several millions, and damage to the city. Admiral Skrydloff's plans of starving out the mutinous crew are more likely to be done. Up to noon Friday nine ships had been burned at Odessa.

BAD FOOD CAUSE.

To This Is Attributed the Revolt That Happened at Libau.

Libau, June 30.—About 4000 mutinous sailors are surrounded in a small wood near this port by infantry reinforced by machine guns. About 1000 mutineers have already surrendered and given up their arms. The mutiny started Tuesday night, when the sailors' first equipage, as naval units are known in Russia, revolted because the food was bad. They were joined immediately by the Sixth, Ninth, Thirteenth and Fifteenth equipages, 5000 bluejackets in all. The guard at first tried to oppose them, killing one and wounding seven, but the sailors got the upper hand. They seized the guardhouse and broke open stores, securing arms and ammunition. Pandemonium followed throughout the night.

The mutineers wrecked barracks, attacked quarters of officers and fired volleys at random until morning. The city was terrorized when the troops and artillery arrived Wednesday morning. All entrances to the city were closed and gradually the sailors were driven into the woods, which they have since held. Much firing, mingled with the humming of machine guns, has been heard, but as every one was forced by the police to keep off the streets and away from the port, some distance below the town, nothing is definitely known except 1000 mutineers surrendered.

Revolutionary agents seized the opportunity to distribute proclamations from house to house.

CAPTAIN SUICIDED.

Sailor Also Picked Up a Hammer and Brained an Officer.

Astoria, Ore., June 30.—Captain Robertson of the steamer Sandhurst, which arrived here from Tsingtau, China, states that while he was there he anchored a short distance from the disabled battleship Czarevitch. Captain Robertson states that when news of Rojestvensky's defeat was received there the captain of the Czarevitch committed suicide. One of the Czarevitch's officers, the captain says, while reading an account of the battle in the Sea of Japan, which blamed the defeat on the sailors, was overheard by a sailor on the Czarevitch. Captain Robertson states the sailor picked up a hammer and said: "It is such men as you who are to blame," and brained the officer. Both the dead officers were buried the following day.

SATURDAY, JULY 1.

The records in Dr. W. D. Hunter's office show that boll weevils are scattered fairly well throughout all parts of North Texas. From Wichita Falls to Texarkana, all the way under Red river the pests established themselves during October and November last fall. The weevil is active as far north as Wills Point Van Zandt county.

Hon. Richard Mays has published an open letter to Hon. Rufus Hardy, both of whom are in the race for congress from this district, in which he proposes that they submit to the people of Navarro county as to which of the two shall remain in the race. Mr. Mays proposes that they request the county executive committee to order a primary to come off before the regular primary at which they submit to the people of the county their claims for congress, and the one receiving a majority of the votes cast to remain in the field.

Col. F. P. Holland, the popular, enterprising, successful and widely known publisher of Texas Farm and Ranch, by all odds the best and most practical paper of its kind we know of anywhere, has determined to launch "Holland's Magazine," August 1, 1905, and we have before us the artistic cover of the first number. The publication will not be sectional or local, and will be planned on broad lines and conducted on a high plane. Good fiction, floriculture, fashion, culinary affairs, domestic and business economy, building plans, hunting and fishing, and matter of interest to young people and children will form leading features of the new monthly publication, for which we predict success from the beginning. The initial number is awaited with interest.

LAZINESS A TOWN KILLER.

The Navasota Examiner has inaugurated a campaign to arouse the public spirit of the citizens of that community, and calls emphatically upon them to get together and do something for the town. From a lengthy editorial we take the following, which may be read with profit even in a town where no little activity prevails:

The Examiner does not attempt to lay the blame for the existing feeling of discontent here at Navasota at the door of any particular party. We all have a duty to perform and are equally responsible to the extent of our influence. The trouble then is with the whole of us. We are lazy. There is no two ways about it—that is the only possible solution. Towns all around us are awaking to a realization of what it takes to develop, while we sit silently by and allow opportunities to escape without the least ripple of disturbance on the water. It is a burning shame that this is so.

Our frog-in-the-well advancement has long since ceased to be a joke and the truth of it is quite apparent. If Navasota advances no more rapidly in the next five years than she has in the past five, we may all be doing business here, but it is doubtful. The advancement of realty will be of the nature at present existing, and vacant houses will be found in greater abundance, and there are several of them now.

What is to be done or what can be done to check the trend of retrogression we do not attempt to suggest. We may even be censured for publicly proclaiming the existence of the fact, but we care nothing for that if we can but arouse the business interests of the old town from a comatose state to one of activity and real advancement. Navasota is a splendid town naturally, and with the increase of railroads of late and prospective ones almost in sight, there is no reason why she should not be rated A1 in the commercial world.

Hamp Buchanan of Kurten was in town yesterday and says that the postponed Kurten picnic will be held at an early date, and preparations for a big time are being made.

WEST TEXAS NEWS.

Dimmitt, Texas, June 26.—Oat and wheat cutting is the order of the day in Castro county at present. One of our neighbors, Mr. W. P. Boyd, doesn't stop work on Sunday. He is the only man in this community who has a broadcast binder. The grain is ripening very fast. Persons who have had experience raising wheat say that the wheat in this county will make from ten to twenty bushels of grain per acre.

Mr. Editor, come up and bring some of our good friends from Brazos county with you, as this country with its coat of green grass, its herds of fat cattle, horses and sheep, its fields of golden grain and dark green forage crops, dotted here and there with small patches of cotton, is a glorious sight to behold.

Our old friend, S. I. Lee, is now harvesting his oats, which are very good.

Mr. T. J. Sawyer is farming in earnest; he has about decided that this is a farming country.

I hope Brazos county will export that carload of cheap hands to W. I. T. of Oklahoma. Men from East Texas can hardly get used to high priced labor. I have never done a day's work since I came to the plains for less than $1.00 per day and board; have received here as high as $3.50 per day. I have experienced no trouble in securing work, but will say one cannot choose the location, as I came in last week from a job 45 miles from home.

BEAUTIFUL SAN MARCOS.

Prof. R. E. Scott Writes the Eagle Entertainingly From that City.

San Marcos, Texas.
June 29, 1905.

Editors Eagle:

I receive the Eagle every week, and it is a source of all the good news. Bryan will wake up after all and have the electric line from Bryan to College. We hear the question discussed in these parts.

Land around San Marcos sells from $50 to $100 per acre, but I see no advantage this country has over old Brazos. This is a beautiful country with its mountain scenery and caves. I had the pleasure of exploring one of these large caves. We entered the cave about 5:30 in the afternoon, my companion and I, led by a guide. We had not gone far when the guide halted and lighted a lantern, which we found to be very useful before we returned. We went through narrow places, over huge rock and down ladders until we were more than 100 feet under the ground. Our little underground trip was not at all uneventful, our guide stopping and letting us admire the wonders and mysteries of old Mother Earth. We could stand on one rock and look down and only wonder where the bottom could be—concealed by darkness. One place, a large spacious room, was pointed out to us as being a refuge for outlaws in the early days of Texas—here the desperate characters would hide and engage in gambling and drinking. Entering this place we found a pool of water as clear as crystal—pure freestone water—and to our great amazement found a pipe extending from the surface of the ground to this pool of water. On inquiry it was ascertained that the pipe led to a pump. We were then 100 feet from the surface and 100 yards from the place where we entered the cave. We found all kinds of rocks and curiosities—a wonderful place to observe the wonders and beauties abounding on every side.

Our next trip of exploration was out on the San Marcos river—the most beautiful stream in Texas. No wonder the thirsty Indians, upon beholding this river, exclaimed, "Beautiful Texas!" The river rises from the foot of a large mountain; at one point a spring boils up in midstream, and the river is fifty or sixty feet deep. So clear is the river that fish can be seen swimming 20 or 25 feet below the surface. From this river the city of San Marcos obtains its water supply.

To add to Nature's beauties and wonders, there is the government fish hatchery, located by the banks of the river. In the hatchery is an artesian well 700 feet deep and supplying an enormous quantity of water from a ten-inch pipe. We were also shown by our excellent naturalist, S. W. Stanfield, a specimen of fish which had been brought up by the artesian well. It was a blind fish. It was sent to a New York naturalist who on examination found it to be a new species of blind fish, and named it "Typhlomolge Bathuni."

So you see, Mr. Editors, San Marcos is a wonderful place.

WARM WEATHER HELPS.

Get Rid of Your Catarrh by Using Hyomei Now.

Everyone who has catarrh should take advantage of the warm weather to get rid of this annoying and distressing disease. The right treatment, faithfully followed, in May or June, will benefit much more quickly than in the winter and early spring.

Do not try to cure catarrh of the head and throat by taking drugs into the stomach. It cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this too common disease can be cured is through a direct application that will kill the germs of catarrh and prevent their growth.

Hyomei is the only known method of treatment that accomplishes this. It is the simplest, most pleasant, and the only absolute cure for catarrh that has ever been discovered. When using Hyomei every particle of air that enters the air passages of the throat and head goes into the lungs, is charged with healing balsam that kill the catarrhal germs and soothes and allays all irritation.

The 1st day's use of Hyomei will show decided improvement, and in a short time, especially if used at this season of the year, there will be no further trouble from catarrh.

You take no risk in buying Hyomei. The complete outfit costs but one dollar, and if after using you can say that the treatment has not helped you, E. J. Jenkins will return your money.

are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart. Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

STATION DESTROYED.

Bomb Exploded at Odessa and Several Persons Injured.

Thus far the only incident reported besides the burning of the Central station is the explosion of a bomb in a private house by which several persons were injured, but it is impossible to get precise information or permission to visit the scene.

Sensational accounts which cannot be definitely confirmed are current regarding Wednesday night's rioting. In these accounts it is stated that no fewer than 1000 persons were killed. The troops faced a position of complete anarchy, thousands of desperate incendiaries are trying to set fire to every building. They were compelled to adopt the sternest measures and employ machine guns against the mob.

It is alleged that at 3 o'clock Thursday morning a large body tried to enter the central part of the town and a terrific battle was kept up by both sides with rifles and revolvers. It is also alleged that hundreds were killed and that when a great mob tried to ascend the steps near the church of St. Nicholas to reach the boulevard, Cossacks and other troops fired repeated volleys into the crowd with terrible results, wagon loads of dead being carried away. Many lives, it is said, were lost in the endeavors of the military to stop incendiarism.
